Augustus Schermerhorn, James P. Scott matters in America that they pay little attention to the American turf, and rarely see a race. The club has a thoroughly efficient, competent, saga-cious and energetic secretary in Cornelius Fel-lowes, but Colonel Kip, John G. to be expected to bear the whole burden on their shoulders. They ought to have the loyal and diligent aid of their fellow-governors, if all these governors would do their utmost to restore the old glories of the American turf, when big-hearted, broad-minded, far-seeing, enterprising and generous Leonard W. Jerome opened Jerome Park with the co-operation of August Belmont, D. D. Withers, John F. Purdy, Milton Sanford, William R. Travers and the other turf glants of those days, the American people might perhaps become in time almost as fond of racing as are our British kin beyond sen. But there has been too much apatipy and indifference among the leading citizens who could restore the old glories of the American turf if they worked hard to do so. As it is now, the turf is still on trial in this State. When the Legislature was persuaded to grant certain privileges to racetracks, it was with the understanding that the turf should be thoroughly disinfected. Is the turf thoroughly disinfected, when an unscrupalous jockey who has been twice ruled off is taken back and is engaged to ride the horses of some of the foremost turfines in this country in conspicuous races? Is the turf in a thoroughly sound and wholesome condition when Pettengill is suffered to continue giving such starts as he has been giving and is allowed to set down lockeys whose services are much more popular and of vastly more value to the turf than Pettengill's services can ever possibly be<sup>2</sup>.

Brush's fortunes, the bookmakers eagerly laid two to one against Ben Brush at the opening, and some of them were trying to tempt speculators by offering four to one and even nve to one against Ben Brush after the horses had gone to the post. Ben Brush was absolutely last of the whole neld for a time on the backstretch, but, without any help from Hewitt, who did the best he could, but was not strong enough to help Ben Brush, the winner of the Suburban took third place of his own voluntary motion and eager ambition in the homestretch. But the struggle at the finish was connected to Sir Waiter and Free Advice. Clayton, on Sir Waiter, outrode Thorpe, on Free Advice, in the final furiong, and sir Waiter, who carried it to the 108 on Free Advice, ran more generously than Free Advice ran. Therefore Sir Waiter won the race by a head, Free Advice second, Ben Brush an undangerous third.

The lightly weighted Rey del Tierra ran into the lead early in the race, and on the backstreich was showing her way handsomely. But he was seriously outclassed and collapsed completely in the final quarter-mile, coming nome last of all. Howard Mann, winner of the Brooklyn Handicap, had may friends and unckers, and none of the bookmakers ever ventured to give a really long price against him. But on a dry, fast track Ben Brush can concede at least ten pounds to Howard Mann, and ho and Mann, with 124 up never had a chance to deteat Ben Brush, much less to get first or second place. On Saturday of this week, beginning at noon, William Easton, the celebrated auctioneer, will sell at auction in the Easton Courany's paddock, opposite to the main entrance of the Sheepshead Bay racetrack, seven yearlings, the property of James Galway's Preakness Stud; two, the property of Milton Young; three, the property of the Ellers, ile Stud, and one, the property of L. Elmote & Co., selected fourteen yearlings at Milton Young; three, the property of the firm of Elmore & Co., selected fourteen yearlings at Milton Youngs Mistrahama Stud, at Lexington, Ky, Mr. Elmore had the pick of the entire product of this famous stock farm, and, of course, chose those which he considered the best, price being no obstacle. When the selection had been made it was the opinion of Mr. Young, which he still holds, that those purchased were the best in the lot. Mr. Elmore, having since made arrangements to take charge of and train the Preakness Stable, saw that the string he would have to handle would be too large and unwieldy for one person to superintend properly, and it has therefore, head Elmore & Co. offering seven and Mr. Galway seven. The yearlings of Elmore & Co. have used arrived from McGrathiana where they have been ever since their purchase, and although they have been treken and handled, they are guaranteed to be absolutely untried. The Preakness yearlings have never had a saddle on their backs, and, head have been taken up for market only about ten days.

As Mr. Galway annually breeds more than he cares to race, he has selected seven yearlines for this sale, to reduce the number to be trained and with the expectation and hove that they will get into competent hands and through proof development become a credit to the Freakness Stud. If the present lot turn out as well as those sold he Mr. Galway last season, and they have every promise of doing so, the purchasers will be formed and the interest of those bought in 1855 by J. C. Cabe alone are the two-year-old winners Crocket, Lihation, Mary Galvin, Tom 1419 and Loxing Cup, any one of which is probably worth more now than was paid then for the entire lot. The troubles of the umpire will apparently never end at the Polo Grounds until the last game has been played. There was the usual rumpus on the Harlem flats yesterday, and the game ended in some disorder. The score appended is that of the game as it was played, there being no reason why team should be deprived of runs and hits simply because an opposing player refuses to take his Anson spoiled a clean victory for his Colts by inning. The umpire's refusal to comply with the request brought forth a strong epithe Ryan endeavored to bat, but was called from the plate. One minute having expired and no man coming up, the man who should have faced the pitcher was declared out, and play was resumed.

When the trouble arose the score was 7 to 5 in favor of Chicago. The team made three more runs in the ninth inning. When New-York went to bat in its half of the ninth, Decker was on first base in place of Anson, and Friend covered left field, his form enveloped in a regulation Chicago dressing-gown, while on his head was a Chicago cap. The New-York players raised vigorous objections to Friend, who they asserted was not playing in uniform. Two men went out in succession, and Gleason began to protest again, McCreery was instructed not to go to the bat, and Emslie called the game.

CYCLISTS - NOTES AND Two meetings which will interest the average rider of the wheel will be held to-day. The Nominating Committee of the New-York State Division of the L. A. W. will meet at the offices of the division, in the Vanderbilt Building, and make known the list of State officials for the year. The fact that the membership in the State has init was decided to have hereafter only one State representative for each four hundred members. Up to the present time there has been one for every two hundred members. The decrease will mean the dropping of many of the old names, as it was intimated vesterday that several new names might be added. Among the new officials who may be found in the list are Charles E. Simms, ir., and Dr. Pifford. The officials, when asked yesterday if they feared any opposition this year, said that they had heard of no opposition, and consequently did not think that any was contemplated. The other meeting to be held today which will interest wheelmen will be the session of the Board of Aldermen at the City Hall. It has been promised that something will be done to-day regarding the final disposal of the proposed street ordinances which have been hung up so long. The L. A. One of the features arranged yesterday for the Quill Club races at Manhattan Beach next Satur-day, the first day of the series, is a team pursuit race between Buffalo and New-York. The race will be for ten miles, unless one of the teams catches the other before the distance has been travelled. The Buffalo trio will consist of A. B of 4:15.2-5; E. D. Stevens, who was second in the National amateur mile championship at Philadelphia, and C. J. Miller, who has won a mile handicap from scratch in 2:07. The three belong to the Rambier Bicycle Club, and a week ago composed the Buffalo team which defeated a New-York contingent consisting of Fowell, Miller and Schoffeld in a race at Buffalo. The New-York team next Saturday will consist of C. M. Ertz, the National champion at a mile; I. A. Powell, the National champion at two miles, and Ray Dawson, the intercollegiate mile champion. Few races compare in exciting features with a team pursuit race. A CHICAGO-NEW-YORK MEET ARRANGED.

CONTESTS BETWEEN THE ATHLETIC CLUBS OF THE TWO CITIES TO TAKE PLACE SOON

R. E. Pettet, president, and Randolph E. Fish burn, chairman of the Athletic Committee of the Chicago Athletic Association, were the guests of President Whitley and Bartow S. Weeks, of the New-York Athletic Club, at Travers Island yesterday. In the evening Mr. Weeks gave a dinner at the New-York Athletic Clubhouse. At this dinner a dual meet between the New-York Athletic Club and the Chicago Athletic Association was agreed upon. The first meet will be held at Travers Island, on ladies' day, October 2, and the return meet will be held in Chicago at a date next year to be subsequently agreed upon. This arrangement is now subject only to formal ratification by the Board of Governors of the Chicago Athletic Association. The dual meet is mainly the result of the showng made by the athletes of the Chicago Association at the A. A. U. meet last Saturday. At the meet on October 2, a feature seldom seen in the East will be introduced. R. C. Ewry, holder of the American records, will compete in both the stand-American records, will compete in both the standing, high and broad jumps. In addition to these will be the discus and shot contests, when the New-York Athletic Club expect to have Richard Sheldon, who performed brilliantly in the English championships, to meet the Western champion, C. H. Henneman, and the sixteen-pound hammer-throwing contest, in which John Flanagam will represent the East, and a new champion is expected from the West. from the West.

ON THE GOLF LINKS.

The Morris County Golf Club, of Morristown, N. J., is to begin its fall handleap for the Ballantine Cup on Saturday, September 4. On Labor Day there is to be an open handicap of eighteen holes for three prizes offered by the club. Entries for the latter contest close at 3:30 p. m. on September 6. Robert MacAndrews, the professional, who has come to this country to take part in the National golf championship at Chicago next month, was defeated in a thirty-six-hole match on the Fairfield links on Sunday by Finlay Douglas, the young Scotch amateur. MacAndrews has a great reputation on the other side of the Atlantic, having a record for the St. Andrews links, Scotland, of 78. record for the St. Andrews links, Scotland, of 78. Since his arrival in this country he has visited some of the New-England courses, and he holds the record for both the Springfield and Chicopee links. Douglas, however, outclassed him at every point, winning the match by 4 up. No cards were kept, as both men lifted on a number of holes. It was computed that Douglas did the morning rounds in 28 and 37 respectively. At the end of this half of the contest Douglass was 3 up. In the afternoon the second eighteen holes were played, and Douglas won by 1 up. Dr. Carl Martin, another well-known amateur, played an eighteen-hole match with MacAndrews vesterday over the same course, and this time the Scotchman won by 6 up.
